Theodore Yohalem Shouse
Montréal, QC
theodore.shouse@mail.mcgill.ca | +1 206 886 5677 | LinkedIn
authorized to work in US, Canada, and EU

Education

McGill University — BA in political science with distinction; economics minor (2022–2026)
GPA: 3.84 out of 4.0, Norman Berman Memorial Prize, Casey Family Programs Board of Trustees Award for Academic Excellence.

Coursework in econometrics, economic development, statistics and spatial analysis, international relations, European politics (graduate level), political science research methods, environmental systems

BlueDot Impact — AGI Strategy and Frontier AI Governance courses (2026)

Skills

AI safety and governance, data analysis and visualization (R, Stata, SPSS, Excel), social science research, journalistic and academic writing, editing, podcasting, audio production, fluent French, intermediate Spanish, basic Portuguese

Experience

Co-Director — AI Alignment McGill (September 2026–present)
Co-founded and co-lead McGill's AI safety student group. Helping facilitate a reading group based on BlueDot's AGI Strategy curriculum. I also work on outreach, recruiting, and strategic planning.

Senior Editor and Podcaster — McGill International Review (January 2024–present)
Managed coverage of the 2024 US election, coordinating a team of writers and editors. Prepared, recorded, and edited interviews with economists such as Paul Collier and Claudia Sahm and with writers from The New York Times, Le Devoir, The American Conservative, Bloomberg, Jacobin, and The Nation.

Research Assistant — Institute of Fiscal Studies and Democracy (Winter 2026)
Prepared reports on Ukrainian constitutional law, fiscal governance, decentralization reforms, and economic development drawing on research from the OECD, IMF, and World Bank.

Housing Policy Data Intern — Curbcut (Summer 2025)
Analyzed municipal zoning documents (in French and English) and worked with a team to create a dataset in R for a project on housing construction rates in Canada.

Participant — Levy Institute Seminar on Money, Finance, and Public Policy (June 2025)
Was accepted to a graduate-level seminar on macroeconomics and public policy at Bard College.

Managing Editor — Nu Magazine (July–December 2024)
Cofounded and edited an apolitical Jewish culture magazine at McGill, on whose board I now sit.

English Teacher — Gobierno Parroquial, Seis de Julio de Cuellaje (June 2024)
Volunteered in a rural community in Ecuador, communicated in Spanish for the month I was there.

Research Assistant — Professor Carlos Fraenkel (February 2024–June 2024)
Helped Professor Fraenkel revamp the curriculum of his course The Good Life. We initiated a study on whether philosophy courses change students' moral, religious, or political views.

Editor and Contributor — The Tribune (September 2022–April 2024)
Copy edited, contributed to, and sat on the editorial board of The Tribune, a McGill student newspaper.

French Teacher and Camp Counselor — Alliance Française de Seattle (Summer 2023)
Oversaw a classroom of children in a francophone work environment.

Selected Publications and Media

"Eurobonds: How Europe Can Reassert Its Sovereignty and Bring back Growth," McGill Journal of Economics, January 2026.

"Canada Has Fiscal Space: How the 2025 Budget Invests in Growth," McGill Journal of Economics, December 2025.

"Interview with Kevin Page on the federal budget," McGill International Review Podcast, November 2025.

"Fighting Inflation: Maybe Monetary Policy Is Overrated," McGill Journal of Economics, October 2025.

« Entrevue avec Boris Proulx sur l'élection fédérale », McGill International Review Podcast, May 2025.

"Interview with James K. Galbraith on Entropy Economics," McGill International Review Podcast, March 2025.

"Interview with Anatol Lieven on Russia and Western foreign policy," McGill International Review Podcast, March 2025.

"What's Jewish Culture with Professor Carlos Fraenkel," Nu Magazine, October 2024.

"Immigration is the Solution to Canada's Housing Crisis," McGill International Review, May 2024.

"As a Three-Decade War Continues in the Congo, the World Looks Away," McGill International Review, March 2024.

"Interview with Claudia Sahm on inflation and the Fed," McGill International Review Podcast, March 2024.

"Interview with Matthew Rosenberg on the Afghanistan War," McGill International Review Podcast, March 2024.

"SSMU execs discuss deficit spending, bureaucratic inefficiency, and tuition hikes at GA," McGill Tribune, February 2024.

« Francisation des étudiants de McGill », La Presse, January 2024.

Interests

University Debate — Quarterfinalist at the anglophone 2024 Canadian Universities Debating Championship; finalist and top speaker at the francophone 2024 Coupe Brébeuf. Competed at the 2026 World Universities Debating Championship in Bulgaria.

Blogging — I write about economics, animal welfare, politics, music, and more at this site.

Piano — I play jazz and classical piano. My high school band made the finals of the Essentially Ellington national jazz competition at the Lincoln Center, where I received an award for outstanding piano.